Section 6. Guidance

Supporting page 1

A landlord, for the purpose of the legislation, is the person who is entitled to possession of the property.

In most cases this will be the owner of the property.

A landlord who must register therefore could be an individual person, a group of people or even a company (depending on how the property is owned).

Individual Landlord: You are the sole owner of the property (with only your name on the deeds). You must provide your name, date of birth, correspondence details and the full address of each rental property in Wales that you are the landlord for.

Joint Landlord: The rental property is in joint ownership (i.e. more than one person's name on the deeds). One of the joint owners must be appointed as the lead to register on behalf of the other joint owner(s). The lead must provide their own details and the details of each joint landlord.

Corporate body: If the property is owned by a company, then it is the company that registers as the landlord. You must complete the registration by providing the company details including the registration number obtained from Companies House, the registered office address and correspondence address.

Charity: If the property is owned by a charity, then it is the charity that registers as the landlord. You must complete the registration by providing the charity details including the registration number obtained from the Charity Commission or another relevant registration number, the registered office address and correspondence address.

Trust: If the property is owned in a trust, one appointed trustee can register the property under the collective name of the trust. The details provided should be those of the trust, not the individual trustee(s) completing the registration.

Non-UK resident landlord

If you live abroad for 6 months or more per year, you're classed as a 'non-resident landlord' by HM Revenue and Customs. This should be noted on the registration form.

Company / charity registration number

For a Corporate Body this is the registration number given by Companies House and for a charity, this is the registration number issued by The Charity Commission.

Landlord letting and management activities for which a landlord licence is required

These are defined in section 6 & 7 of the Housing (Wales) Act 2014. As a landlord, you will need a licence if you do or intend to do any of the following things at a property for which you are a landlord:

The things are:

- a) arranging or conducting viewings with prospective tenants;
- b) gathering evidence for the purpose of establishing the suitability of prospective tenants (for example, by confirming character references, undertaking credit checks or interviewing a prospective tenant);
- c) preparing, or arranging the preparation, of a tenancy agreement;
- d) preparing, or arranging the preparation, of an inventory for the dwelling or schedule of condition for the dwelling.
- e) collecting rent;
- f) being the principal point of contact for the tenant in relation to matters arising under the tenancy;
- g) making arrangements with a person to carry out repairs or maintenance;
- h) making arrangements with a tenant or occupier of the dwelling to secure access to the dwelling for any purpose;
- i) checking the contents or condition of the dwelling, or arranging for them to be checked (even if the tenancy has ended but you are checking its condition to determine the condition the tenants left it in);
- j) serving notice to terminate a tenancy.

Agent letting and management activities for which a licence is required if you are not the landlord

The following sets out the letting and management work which a person acting on behalf of a landlord at a rental property in Wales requires a licence. This is defined in section 10 and 12 of the Housing (Wales) Act 2014.

If an individual or company acts on your behalf and meets the following criteria for an agent licence, they must be identified in this registration by you against the rental property they work at.

Agent Letting Work: One of these can be done by a person who is not the landlord without requiring an agent licence, as long they also do nothing under the 'agent property management work' section.

- a) publishing advertisements or disseminating information;
- b) arranging and conducting viewings with prospective tenants;
- c) preparing, or arranging the preparation of, the tenancy agreement;
- d) preparing, or arranging the preparation of, any inventory or schedule of condition;

Agent Property Management Work: This activity on its own requires a licence

- a) collecting rent

It is acceptable to do one of the following without requiring a licence, as long as you do not collect rent, or do anything under the 'Agent Letting Work' section.

- b) being the principal point of contact for the tenant in relation to matters arising under the tenancy;
- c) making arrangements with a person to carry out repairs or maintenance;
- d) making arrangements with a tenant or occupier of the dwelling to secure access to the dwelling for any purpose;
- e) checking the contents or condition of the dwelling, or arranging for them to be checked as part of a current tenancy or for one that has ended;
- f) serving notice to terminate a tenancy.

Supporting pages 7 + 8

Property type definitions

There are 3 'Property Types' that you can select. A property type needs to be selected for each rental property that you add to your registration.

1) Single Dwelling Household: The Housing Act 2004 (S.254) defines a single household as a family, e.g. a couple (whether married or not and including same-sex couples) or persons related to one another. For these purposes, a person is a member of the same family as another if:

- a) those persons are married to (or civil partners of each other or live together as if they were a married couple or civil partners)
- b) one of them is a relative of the other
- c) one of them is, or is a relative of, one member of a couple and the other is a relative of the other member of the couple.

2) Shared house: A shared house is commonly defined as two or more people living in accommodation together. Usually each person will have their own bedroom and typically they will share some communal areas such as kitchens, bathrooms or living rooms.

3) Purpose build / converted flat or bedsit: Purpose built flats/bedsits are those which have been constructed from the beginning as flats/bedsits rather than those that have been converted from its original construction, for example, a house or other type of building.

If there are multiple tenancies within a property, such as a shared house/flat then you must ensure that you enter the address and postcode of each occupation contract on the registration.

For example, Flats A, B, and C that are all within 1 High Street, Cardiff, CF12 3AB should be added as three separate bedsits/flats, and not just as one property listed as 1 High Street, Cardiff, CF12 3AB.

Fees

Registration fees differ depending on your application type. For a new and revoked registration, the cost is £102.00. To renew a registration, the cost is £87.00. To take advantage of the renewal fee, the application must be made before the registration expires. If you allow a registration to expire, this will incur a new registration fee and not the renewal fee.
